

You are invited to bring a team to a
2006 READY CAMP

Responding To Emergencies And Disasters with Youth

Make Sure Students
Are READY!

The READY Camp is a five-day summer camp that provides training to middle and high school students and their advisors to help them prepare, prevent, respond and recover from emergencies in their schools and communities. This initiative will involve a partnership with fire, law enforcement, EMS responders, health care personnel and educators, as well as the Office of Justice Assistance and Wisconsin National Guard. READY Camp aligns with the No Child Left Behind Act and was developed by leading educators. The camp offers opportunities for students to expand leadership and citizenship skills while learning positive ways to help others.

Teams of eight students and an advisor from each participating school are invited. You will meet adult leaders and students from other areas of the state.

Students will learn and participate in:

- Safety, injury prevention, first aid, CPR, and AED training
- Emergency preparedness including terrorism and crime prevention
- Department of Military Affairs Leadership Development Course
- Career development activities with fire, law enforcement, emergency health personnel and educators
- Mock disaster exercises

Student Benefits:

- Provided at no cost
- Skills development including emergency preparedness, American Red Cross First Aid, CPR, and AED certification
- Every school attending will receive funding to support development of student preparedness activities
- Knowledge about health, safety and potential dangers in their communities.
- Confidence in their new abilities and themselves

Student Advisor Benefits:

- Earn professional development credits
- Build a student emergency response team in your district – a program that will benefit your school and your community
- Stipend will be provided for time commitment
- Lodging, meals and mileage provided
